AUTOMATON NETWORK CHARACTERIZATION

S. NANDITTA, K. THIAGARAJAN, PONNAMMAL NATARAJAN AND S. JEYABHARATHI

Abstract

A sperner's grid is thought of a finite state system, where in the model gives rise to an optimal network through characterization of paths in network. The automation graphs of the various states gives rise to different groomable light paths in network.